Honoring Our Man of the Year

DAN ALLEN

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, CONSTRUCTION INDUSTRY SERVICE CORPORATION (CISCO)

The Italian American Labor Council of Greater Chicago is proud to bestow our 2025 Man of the Year Award upon labor leader Dan Allen.

Dan began serving as Executive Director of Construction Industry Service Corporation in 2013. Under his leadership, CISCO has continued to maintain its prominence as a Labor-Management association, representing 140,000 Union workers and 8,000 Union contractors across six counties. CISCO enhances training, safety and Labor relations, as well as promotes worker training, Apprenticeships, safety initiatives, and fair contracting practices, fostering meaningful dialogue between Unions and contractors.

Dan frequently speaks at industry group events and contractor associations, highlighting CISCO's value propositions and collaborative initiatives.

Dan came to CISCO from the City of Chicago, where he was Chief Electrical Inspector for 10 years. He has been a proud member of the IBEW Local 134 since 1982. He has deep roots in the building trades with a long multi-generational history of Union activism.

Dan currently serves on the Boards of Directors of the Chicago Building Congress, HIRE360 Workforce Committee, Choose DuPage (County Economic Development), Workers' Compensation Research Institute (WCRI), Chair of the DuPage Workforce Development Board, and Gateway to Learning, an organization providing lifelong learning for adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities that promotes active inclusion.

He can't hit a golf ball straight, so in his spare time, Dan enjoys playing handball. He and his wife, Sue, have four children, and recently welcomed their first grandchild. They live in Chicago.

We encourage you to join us on the 11th of October to celebrate Dan's many accomplishments and his dedication to working families.
